CANADIAN WONDERS TOLD BY MRS. CARSON

Third Letter to Parents in Grenada Relates Beauties of Dominion—Glories of Niagara Falls Are Interestingly Described.

This is the third of Mrs. George C. Carson's letters to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Ferguson, during her trip to Canada.

We reached St. Armand, Canada, yesterday, the Canadian immigration station where the immigration officers search your baggage and decide whether or not they will allow you to enter the great Dominion of Canada. We were notified to unlock our hand baggage and a little later another officer came thru the car and inspected the contents. It seemed to meet with his approval and we were at liberty to put it away and told everything was O. K.

Our attention is now turned to the cool weather. It is indeed noticeable and we enjoy the change from mountainous to prairie lands. We see evidence of the lack of prohibition laws. We are now at St. Alexander and see our first Canadian sunset. It is very gorgeous—just like a huge globe of gold hung up in the sky. All the land here seems divided into sections and is mostly fenced and used for pasture lands—a few sheep here and there are seen. It's very similar to southern Texas. We are now passing fields of buckwheat in bloom. The grain stands about a foot and a half high, with beautiful blossoms.

We are now at Iberville and headed toward St. Johns in the province of Quebec. Most automobiles at the stations have "Que" on the license plate. We are now crossing the Richelieu River, a magnificent, wide river, and now we are in St. Johns. Dark eyed French-Canadians come into the car quite briskly and give us the impression that we are among a different race of people. We see light weight coats in evidence and in the mornings there is evidence of a snappy weather. We will soon reach Montreal where we will spend some time taking in the sights of that city which I will tell you about later.

St. Johns is a nice sized town, a railroad center. Country still prairie land. It is now dark and we are nearing Montreal. As we alight from the train, we see tall, stalwart traffic officers wearing heavy blue suits with lovely, high, stiff, white felt helmets. Many drunken men on the streets. We take a taxi up to the Windsor Hotel, the finest in Montreal where the King stops. There seemed to be a banquet on and we were assigned to our room and found if we remained we would be unable to sleep as the carousal noises made by so-called gentlemen in evening dress would perhaps grow worse, we guessed, as the evening wore on; so we called for another room and were told the hotel was filled and it was the only available room. As it was only ten p. m. we called a cab and went over to the Queen's Hotel where we secured a very quiet room.

The next day we saw Montreal. It's a very cosmopolitan old Canadian city. The Catholic priests dressed in black and gold like old fashioned women. They wore full, long skirts, black of course, gathered on to a coat-like jacket and their flat top, wide brimmed, derby hats made them objects to be stared at. They were noticeable everywhere.

McGill's College stands on beautiful grounds. The city is lined with magnificent trees, just beginning to shed their leaves preparatory to putting on their usual winter robes of snow. We see their little down-town Chinatown—a quaint little narrow street about three blocks long. Most of the Chinese people are very venerable and many of them live on what the Americans waste. We decided to go by rail up to Prescott, Canada, and take a steamer up the St. Lawrence River to view the Thousand Islands scattered in and about this beautiful river. We are told there are really about 1600 of them. We go aboard the steamer "Toronto" for a day and night. Our stateroom is nice. The band is playing "Happy Days" and everybody seems ready to enjoy the adventure. From one side of the steamer we view Ogdensburg, New York, and from the other side Prescott, Canada.

We get into Alexander Bay. It seems a veritable mecca for summer pleasure seekers. We see Hart Island with the famous Bold Castle. It stands out majestically. It's a copy of a German castle on the Rhine. It has 80 bed rooms and 50 baths. To the left of this island is one upon which stands the Thousand Island Yacht Club and still another island nearby has on its floor Bonney Castle owned by Rev. J. J. Holland, author of "Seven Oaks". Many of these beautiful islands, ranging from ten to a thousand feet in diameter, have buildings on them,

SCHICK TEST APPLIED

Five Hundred School Pupils Subjects.

Last Monday the Schick test was applied by Dr. H. C. Ricks, of the Mississippi State Board of Health, assisted by Dr. T. J. Brown, county and city health officer, to 500 children, comprising all pupils from the first through the sixth grades of the Grenada City Schools. In order that parents and patrons of the school might know just what the Schick test is the following statement is made by Dr. Brown:

"The Schick test for diphtheria is a test administered to determine whether or not individuals are likely to contract diphtheria if they are exposed to active cases or to individuals who are carriers of the germ in their nose or throat. It consists of a small quantity of the toxin made from the diphtheria germ dissolved in salt water. Three drops of this mixture are injected into the skin of the individual's arm just below the elbow. The site of injection is examined on the fifth day and if there is redness at that time the person is likely to develop diphtheria if exposed in the above mentioned manner; if there is no redness, it indicates that the person is not likely to develop the disease. A person who has had toxin antitoxin should have the Schick test after three months to determine whether or not the toxin antitoxin has made him immune to the disease. If the Schick test is positive, the three doses of toxin should be repeated. Persons who have had diphtheria should have the Schick test two months after recovery of the disease to determine whether or not they are likely to have a second attack, as one attack does not always make a person immune. It is advisable to give all children over five years of age the Schick test before administering toxin antitoxin. Practically all children under five years of age are likely to have the disease, therefore, they should have the toxin antitoxin and the Schick test three months later. The Schick is not a vaccination against diphtheria. It does not prevent the disease, it merely indicates whether or not a person is likely to have the disease if exposed."

MORBIDITY REPORT

The Bureau of Communicable Diseases of the Mississippi State Board of Health announces the monthly numerical morbidity report for the month of September, as follows:

others are just huge rocks and still others a mixture of trees, rock and soil, awaiting purchasers. The rugged scenery, the inviting water, the clear air, the scenic beauty and historic interest makes this trip a most unusual one. We almost forgot about lunch. We find the dining room of the boat very inviting so we hurry in, but at the door are told luncheon tickets must be secured from the purser, so up a flight of stairs and down another we retrace our steps, secure our tickets and return via the same route and are fully repaid with a delicious luncheon, perfectly served. We have a table where we can view the islands from both sides as the ship glides by. We see so many, we have just quit trying to count. One says Castle Rest and we are told this mansion is owned by the Pullmans. Now we see Comfort Island and to the right, Point Vivian with about 60 houses. Now some perfectly round, tree covered nameless ones. The stream is a bit narrow here and the islands are getting thicker and smaller. In the distance is Clayton, N. Y. on the American side, a good sized town, being Thousand Island Terminus of the New York Central. Now we pass St. Helena, "Cinavo", Edgewood. My, My, it's just beautiful. Forty miles of unrivaled and unmatched scenery. Land and water battles were fought here in 1812 and 1813. The islands are of glacial formation. (Continued on page 8.)

DRIVERLESS AUTO TO DEMONSTRATE HERE

Radio Controlled Chrysler to Be Demonstrated on Streets Saturday—Car Stops, Starts and Negotiates Traffic without Driver.

A standard stock model automobile that requires no driver will give six demonstrations on downtown streets Saturday. This mysterious machine is operated and controlled entirely by radio and will carry neither driver nor passenger—yet it starts, stops, and steers its way through traffic just as if a driver were at the wheel. It will blow three large automobile horns at intervals to attract the attention of passersby, or anyone that might be in its path.

R. E. Mack, inventor and operator of this driverless automobile, will give the demonstration here personally. He has selected a new 1929 Chrysler coupe for local exhibition. This car is a stock model loaned by the Grenada Auto Co., of this city. Atwater Kent radio apparatus will be installed on the car at the shop of this concern early Saturday morning. Mr. Mack says, "I have selected the new Chrysler with which to demonstrate the possibilities of radio because of its ease of operation, powerful motor and effortless steering. These qualities insure uniform performance and afford the radio an opportunity to function unhampered by road shock, difficult steering and other items which would materially impair its effectiveness."

During the past year Mr. Mack has been successful in operating this driverless machine under radio control from an airplane flying overhead, from a second car following and from a portable radio control device carried in the hands of the operator walking some distance behind the car. He says "One may rest assured that the performance of this radio-controlled car will be interesting, educational, mysterious and thrilling."

The car will be controlled here by a young woman, Miss Gloria Hall, who will follow in a second car. Every operation of the radio car will be directed by Miss Hall through radio control. She has spent months practicing driving a car by radio control and runs the car through the heaviest traffic without difficulty of any kind.

This mysterious automobile will be known as the "ghost car" and a reward of $1000 has been posted for proof that a driver is concealed in the machine at any time during its exhibition under radio control.

Our sponsor, Miss Helen Rose, and social leader, Miss Ione Gee, then passed around the refreshments. We all enjoyed roasting marshmallows. After all had finished eating, the boys entertained us with some good jokes. Those present were: Misses Helen Rose, Ione Gee, Gladys Dunn, Hazel Gainer, Mary Ella Turnipseed, Vivian Carver, Ruby Mae Elliott and Verna Sue Carver and Paxton Mullen, Carmel Norris, Lamar Norris, Sidney Rice, Henry Fredrick, Fred Turner and the visitors were Roland Hill and Robert Farham.

VERNA SUE CARVER, Secretary.

COTTON REPORT

There were 8,666 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned in Grenada County, from the crop of 1929 prior to October 18, 1929, as compared with 5,389 bales ginned to October 18, 1928.

NORTHERN FARMER TELLS ROADS TO SAFETY

Indiana Man Tells Road Farm Problems.

The problems that confront farmers in Indiana and what they have been making of the past few years to solving them were most interestingly discussed before the Rotarians at their Tuesday meeting by Arthur G. Waterman, farmer of Melott, Fountain county, Indiana. Mr. Waterman said that the northern farmer encountered difficulties similar to those faced by the southern planter and that those in his state as well as in Mississippi who didn't give due attention and the proper amount of industry to their farming operations did not succeed. He said that several years ago in his county the farm bureau organization began working with club boys and girls with the introduction of purebred Guernseys and that through these boys and girls the parents had been educated up to more intelligent farming. He told of the progress made in club work and how many of the fine cattle from his county had taken off honors at various dairy shows. Mr. Waterman, who is secretary of the farm bureau for his county, mentioned the various workings of the organization and cited examples of the good he thought it had accomplished. He said that by keeping alive the interest in the Grenada County Farm Development Association a bright future was assured in dairying for Grenada and Grenada county.

Dr. H. C. Ricks, of the Mississippi State Board of Health, here in the interests of health work in the county, spoke on the work of his organization, telling of the great good accomplished by it in recent years. He said that Mississippi's health department was a pattern for other states to follow. He pointed out the vital necessity of health work and health education, showing how many diseases and deaths could be prevented by the proper precaution.

Other guests at the luncheon were Homer G. Waterman, of Melott, Ind., and Dr. T. J. Brown, W. B. Waterman and W. C. Curle, of Grenada.

RAT CAMPAIGNS BEGIN

A. & M. College, Miss.—Now is the time for rat campaigns and the towns and communities of Mississippi that wish to make a fight against these pests should send requests at once for free assistance, advises Roy Moore of the U. S. Biological Survey, who is in charge of rat control work in Mississippi in cooperation with the State Plant Board. Rats are now leaving the fields and congregating under corn cribs, barns, seed houses, chicken houses, and other places affording food and shelter, and campaigns at this time are likely to be more effective than when the rats are widely scattered.

Mr. Moore will begin operations with a big campaign in Tupelo during the next few days, followed by other campaigns in rapid succession. It is estimated that rats cause about $3,500,000 damage in Mississippi each year. This loss could be greatly reduced by rat proofing cribs, barns, warehouses, and other buildings, and making conditions unfavorable for rats in general. This is the goal sought, but for immediate relief poison campaigns are necessary.

Powdered red squill is the poison used, as it is practically harmless to all animals except rats, and has already given splendid results in about 50 campaigns in Mississippi during the past winter and spring. The campaigns are also very inexpensive, as the total cost is usually about $25 to $35 per thousand population when both business and residential sections are poisoned. No charges are made for any services rendered by the Federal specialist or the State Plant Board inspectors, except in large towns where extra labor is needed, the only cost is for the poisoned bait.

Campaigns will be scheduled as soon as possible, and any town or community desiring a campaign, or any individual wanting information about rat control, should write immediately to Roy Moore, State Plant Board, A. and M. College, Mississippi.

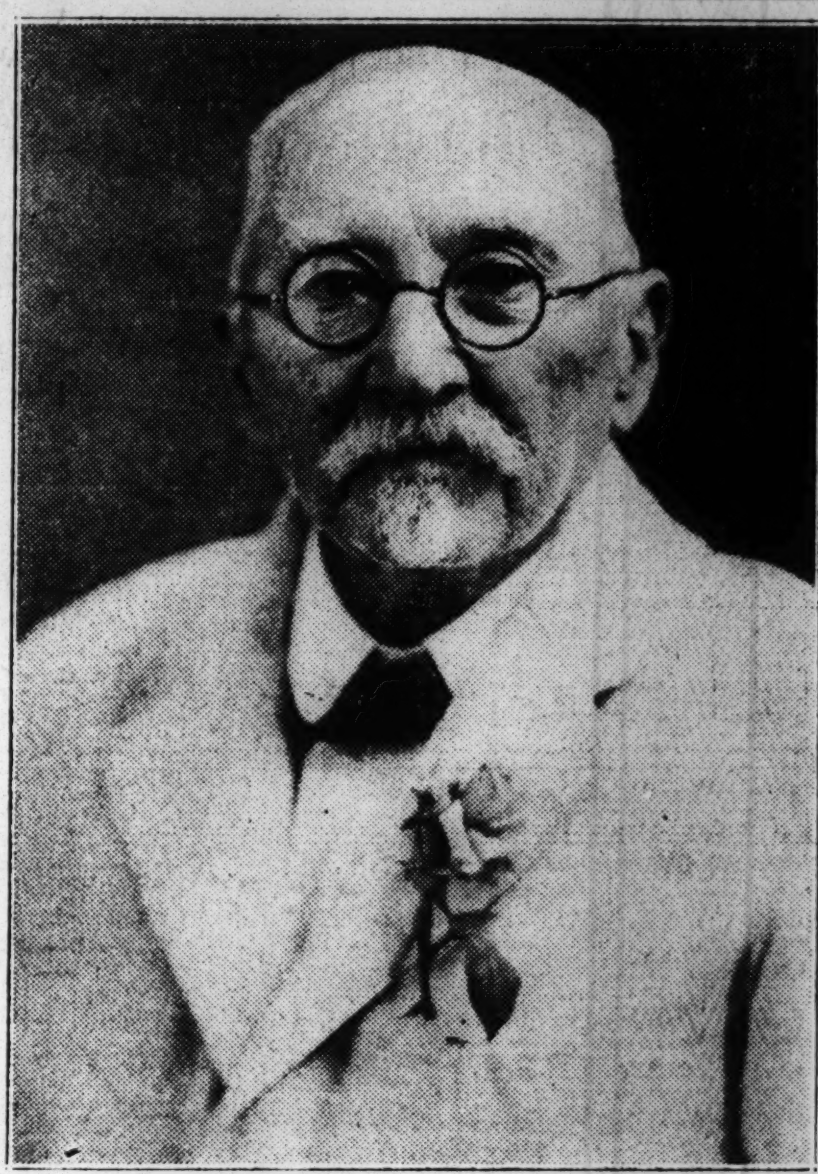

COMMENDS GRADUATES OF GRENADA'S HIGH SCHOOL

The following letter, written by S. B. Hathorn, connected with the state department of education, to Prof. John Rundle, superintendent of Grenada City Schools, pays a most deserved tribute to the city schools and its able head and his splendid corps of assistants:

"The percentage of semester hours failed by 1927-28 graduates of Grenada High School who were in college last year is 2.9. This is an improvement of .7% over the record of the year before and is among the best in the state. The state average is 14.05%."

"I want to commend your school for the improvement over the very excellent record of the year before."

Celebrates 83rd Birthday

DR. J. W. YOUNG

Aged Physician Is Highly Honored On Occasion of Birth Anniversary

Dr. J. W. Young, one of Grenada's oldest and most revered citizens who reached his 83rd birthday Oct. 27th, was commemorated Monday evening by Dr. J. S. Sharp who gave a birthday dinner for this beloved octogenarian. Every physician in Grenada county was invited and all but two, Dr. E. B. Province, of Grenada, and Dr. A. S. Hill, of Holcomb, were privileged to be present. The local physicians there were Drs. R. A. Clanton, F. S. Hill, J. K. Aven, T. J. Brown and W. H. Whitaker. The other Grenada county doctors present were Drs. E. C. Rouse of Graysport and F. B. Coats of Hardy. In addition to these there were Drs. G. Y. Gillespie and S. S. Caruthers of Duck Hill, Rev. R. L. McLeod, Jr., Presbyterian minister and the host's brother, R. W. Sharp.

Dr. Clanton, who presided as toastmaster, was most happy in his remarks. As he called upon each speaker, his introductions were most appropriate and there was a vein of seriousness and reverence in what he said as there was in the words spoken by the others. Yet withal there was no lack of mirth and spirit of good fellowship but it was evident that all present were thinking soberly of the splendid example of patriotic citizenship and Christian living set them by the man to whom they were paying homage. The host delivered a beautiful eulogy on the life and character of Dr. Young, giving at the same time a short biographical sketch of his subject.

What Dr. Sharp said was such a splendid and deserved tribute to Dr. Young, that The Sentinel is passing it on to its readers. It follows:

"Nothing that I could say tonight of a laudatory nature concerning the life of our honor guest could add luster to his name or to the slightest degree augment your admiration or estimation of the many noble virtues and qualities that have characterized his life, for each of you is as familiar as I with his every virtue. And because of this intimate acquaintance with his life it becomes all the more incumbent on each of us to lend our presence to such an occasion as this, and thus to contribute toward the fostering and perpetuating those influences and agencies that have been the outcome of such a life. We have not met here tonight to pay our respects to some departed spirit or to commemorate the daring of some intrepid hero who has passed from the scene of action. Such is too often the case with those who have merited recognition during life, we wait until they are gone to say the nice things of them. Instead of covering their last resting place with a profusion of beautiful flowers how much more one little rosebud of love and commendation would have meant to them had they received it at our hands while they were here on earth with us. And this is our mission here tonight, not to pay homage to the dead, but to pay tribute to a living patriot. It has been well said, and I think such a statement is specially applicable to Dr. Young, that it is not possible to write a true and complete biography until fifty years after the subject of such a sketch has passed away."

Those policies and principles that he so ably and conscientiously espoused and promulgated will carry on and continue to make their impress upon the affairs of those with whom he came in contact for generations to come.

"Dr. Young was born in Carroll County, October 27th, 1846. He received his early education from the high schools of his native county. Like many of his contemporaries his college education was interrupted by the call to arms in defense of his beloved Southland. At the age of 16 he enlisted in the Confederate army and rendered valiant service during the four long years of bloody conflict, such service being characterized by that same fidelity of purpose that has made his life so conspicuous for service and usefulness through all his succeeding years. At the close of the bloody struggle, accepting the arbitration of the sword, he returned to his native county, still torn and bleeding from the ravages of the Civil War. What followed it is not necessary for me to relate for each of you is as familiar as I with those awful days of reconstruction that hovered over our Southland like some dark and threatening cloud. Contrast if you will, the home-coming of the World War Veterans with that of the boys who were the grey. The one being a succession of ovations from the moment the armistice was signed until the present time. The other a succession of indignities and humiliation at the hands of carpetbagger and federal subjugation for a like period of time. Broken in spirit and having lost the cause that was nearest and dearest to the heart of every Confederate soldier, ranking with a spirit of bitterness and rebellion that is usually the outcome of such conquests, and at a time when all the Southland was surcharged with those pent up emotions that were calculated to foil the deliberations of a cool and sober judgment, would it not have seemed the most natural thing for them to have assumed an attitude of belligerent determination to avenge what to each of them had been an unjust warfare? But contrary to such a conclusion with them the war and its results were over, to them it was a closed chapter. Imbued with the spirit of their peerless and immortal leader, Robert E. Lee, and with that magnanimity of soul that has always characterized the Confederate soldier, standing as it were upon the threshold of a new world, with their faces toward the sunrise of a new dawn, they caught a vision of a reunited country, and these emotional impulses were transformed into one mighty and determined effort to bring order out of chaos and thus to contribute in every way possible toward the reconstruction of their wasted and impoverished Southland. And no figure has been more conspicuous in this reconstruction than the subject of our sketch."

ALL SAINTS' DAY

Friday, November 1st being the Festival of All Saints there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a. m. in All Saints' Episcopal Church.

LEE COUNTY WINNER IN DISPLAYS AT FAIR

Mooreville Community Carries Away Honors—All Exhibits More than Praise-worthy—Results Are Grati-fying to Officials.

The Mooreville community booth from Lee County carried off premier honors in exhibits at the North Mississippi Fair. The Mooreville booths won first in the district competition and also carried off the sweepstakes cup for the best all-around display.

Gravel Hill of Carroll County was second for the district; Alva, Montgomery County, third; Scuna Valley, Yalobusha County, fourth, and Independence community, Panola County, ranked fifth; for Grenada County community displays, Gore Springs won first place and Hardy second.

In the colored department Sunflower County's exhibit was awarded first premium; Madison County, second; Bolivar, third; Leflore, fourth, and Humphreys, fifth.

The competition in the colored department between the various beats of Grenada County was unusually keen and the judges had a most difficult task to determine the winners. Beat 4 came off with first honors; beat 1, was second; beat 3, third; beat 5, fourth, and beat 2, fifth.

The exhibits in the colored building drew much praise during the fair from both white and colored visitors and reflected a great deal of credit on their sponsors.

The exhibits in the woman's building merited more than the usual commendation. All of them attested to the skill and the ingenuity of their owners and they drew more attention than is usually accorded them. In the woman's building, too, was a showing of the handwork of the blind and the evidences of their patience and their ability to create such things under such a great handicap were more than praiseworthy. Much credit is due Miss Louise Baker, of near Grenada, for this display for most of those exhibiting were her proteges and she spent a great deal of time preparing the exhibits.

Although final figures of the receipts of the fair are not yet available, Secretary Sam Cain says that he feels sure that the association will be able to reduce a part of its indebtedness. This fact is most gratifying to those who have at heart the interests of the fair and lends encouragement to prospects for forthcoming exhibitions.

Considering the fact that there was considerable talk along the early part of the year of abandoning the annual fair here and that reorganization was effected only during the early summer, giving officials a limited time only to stage such a mammoth enterprise, the meet was more than a success. It was said by many to be as good as any fair ever held here in wealth and excellence of exhibits and in the various amusement attractions offered.

"THE ENCHANTED GARDEN"

On the night of Nov. 14 the beautiful and spectacular opera "THE ENCHANTED GARDEN" will be given by two hundred public school pupils under the direction of Miss Anita Poe Gann, assisted by other members of the faculty. Miss Gann will work into the program the songs she has taught the children in the grades and will add the interesting feature of Rhythm Band of sixty small children. The price of admission will be 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for school pupils.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANTERS

Hotel Guttered by Early Morning Blaze Friday.

Fire of undetermined origin completely gutted the top two floors of the Planters Hotel in Grenada last Friday morning. The fire was discovered at 6 a. m. by guests in the hotel. One man, Harry Greenfield, employe of The Sentinel, was injured, but not seriously, when he suffered severe lacerations of both hands while sliding down a rope to safety from his room on the fourth floor. The loss to building and furnishings was estimated at more than $25,000 with a total of $18,000 insurance. The property was owned by W. B. Hoffa, one of Grenada's largest real estate owners. Mr. Hoffa does not contemplate an immediate rebuilding of the structure but states that he would like to see construction begun right away on a handsome and commodious hotel.

Your fire losses are paid promptly when you place with Hoffa & Moody.

GRENADA NEEDS RESIDENCES FOR RENT.

Within the past ten days several from outside of Grenada have been in town seeking homes. They wanted to live here. They wanted to rent a house. They could not rent one for the reason that none could be found vacant. We know what we are talking about because they came to this office and because we tried to assist more than one in securing a residence. When a residence could not be had, some of these home seekers tried to secure rooms for light housekeeping but there was none to be had.

We believe that Grenada could rent 50 modest homes within twelve months if she had them. Fifty families would be the source of bringing half that many more to Grenada, and these would bring still more.

Grenada is widely known as one of the most ideal residence towns. It has a fame in this respect that reaches beyond the confines of Mississippi. Its record in this respect is thoroughly justified. When one once lives here, he learns of the fine, noble and brotherly sentiment of the town. He learns that some of the very best people in all the world live here, hence the story is carried to others.

It would be fortunate indeed if some of our real estate owners and some of those with money to invest would put their money to work for Grenada by building more homes here. The investors would get something more out of the investment than the mere rental of the property. There would be many reflexes. More homes and more families would make more business and would mean better things for the town.

SAYS PRISONS NOT MADE FOR BIG STEALERS.

Mr. Doran, federal commissioner of prohibition, is shocked by the "inconsistency" of leaders who regard liquor drinking as an evil for their employees, but feel the law should not interfere with their own drinking.

That "inconsistency" need surprise nobody. Prohibition is based upon it.

The greatest steel manufacturer in the United States, recently deceased, told his friend, Mr. Gerard: "We have no trouble with the steel strikes. No strikes can succeed under prohibition. All we've got to do is keep whisky away from the men, which is easy, and they'll submit."

Great industrialists want their men to drink water so that they won't get caught in high speed, and so that they will come to work early Monday morning.

The great industrialists have their bootleggers that supply fairly good champagne.

There is reason in all things.

Our prisons are not made for the man that steals a million. Our prohibition law is not made for the man that owns a million.—Arthur Brisbane.

Investigations in Washington and elsewhere as well as in our own state Capital are developing revelations that should awaken the people. In the last analysis, the fault lies with the citizenship who are so miserably indifferent to public affairs.

JEFFERSON'S LETTER TO HIS NAMESAKE, SMITH

Students of American history know that Thomas Jefferson, second only to George Washington, and the greatest statesman among those who founded this Republic, wrote many letters to many different people covering almost every subject. He very frequently discussed religion and gave his views on this greatest of all great questions. Those who assert now that he was an infidel are either ignorant of the facts or else purposely misrepresent a great man because he did not see some questions, maybe, just as some religious zealots of his day saw them.

Mr. Jefferson wrote a letter to Thomas Jefferson Smith, a namesake, at his Monticello home, February 21, 1825, that contains much that would be more than worth while for people to practice today. We are using that letter for the benefit of our readers and those of the present day.

"This letter will, to you, be as one from the dead. The writer will be in the grave before you can weigh its counsels. Your affectionate and excellent father has requested that I would address to you something which might possibly have a favorable influence on the course of life you have to run, and I too, as a namesake, feel an interest in that course. Few words will be necessary, with good dispositions on your part. Adore God. Reverence and cherish your parents. Love your neighbor as yourself and your country more than yourself. Be just. Be true. Murmur not at the ways of Providence. So shall the life into which you have entered be the portal to one of eternal and ineffable bliss. And if to the dead it is permitted to care for the things of this world, every action of your life will be under my regard. Farewell."

In the letter Mr. Jefferson incorporated the following poem to which he gave the following heading: "The portrait of a good man by the most sublime poets, for your imitation".

Lord, who's the happy man that may to thy blest courts repair,

Not stranger-like to visit them, but to inhabit there?

'Tis his whose every thought and deed by rules of virtue moves,

Whose generous tongue disdains to speak the thing his heart disproves,

Who never did a slander forge, his neighbor's fame to wound,

Nor hearken to a false report, by malice whispered round,

Whom vice, in all its pomp and power, can treat with just neglect;

And piety, though clothed in rags, religiously respect. Who to his plighted vows and trust has ever firmly stood,

And though he promise to his loss, he makes his promise good,

Whose soul in usury disdains his treasure to employ,

Whom no rewards can ever bribe the guiltless to destroy,

The man who, by this steady course, has happiness insured,

When earth's foundations shake, shall stand, by Providence secured.

Mr. Jefferson then adds what he called "A Decalogue of Canons for Observation in Practical Life", as follows:

1. Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today.
2. Never trouble another for what you can do yourself.
3. NEVER SPEND YOUR MONEY BEFORE YOU HAVE IT.
4. Never buy what you do not want because it is cheap; to you it will be dear.
5. Pride costs us more than hunger, thirst and cold.
6. We never repent of having eaten too little.
7. Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.
8. How much pain have cost us the evils which have never happened.
9. Take things always by their smooth handle.
10. When angry, count ten before you speak; if very angry, a hundred.

THE MISTAKE OF SOME YOUNG WOMEN.

A talented American actress decides that she must play Shylock and does, in London. Critics say that her false whiskers are not convincing. The young lady probably will die convinced that she is a great unappreciated Shylock.

Millions of young women make the same mistake, undertaking work for which nature did not prepare them.

They would laugh if the man insisted on nursing a baby, without the necessary apparatus. Women make efforts outside of their natural field that are just as preposterous.—Arthur Brisbane.

A MINISTER MISUNDERSTOOD.

Some one stated that as the minister in a certain church in a neighboring town was announcing "hymn 140", an "unreduced" sister was prancing down the aisle, and that after the services were concluded, she gave a gentle reproof to the parson for calling attention to her weight, and inquired how it happened that he knew just what she weighed, whereupon the parson answered, "Sister, I was giving out a hymn without any thought of a her".

EASY

to handle and control

The more time you spend behind the wheel of a Dodge Six—driving on crowded streets and busy highways—the more enthusiastic you will be over its easy handling. The roller-bearing steering guides with minimum effort. The clutch is easy-acting; so is the gear shift. Weather-proof, internal-expanding 4-wheel hydraulic brakes afford easy operation and are positively equalized. The lively motor with its 7-bearing crankshaft, Invar Strut aluminum alloy pistons and other refinements, responds instantly with a quick surge of power. In every way, the Dodge Six is easy to handle and control. That is why it is particularly prized by people who do a lot of driving.

A RESOLUTION

The following resolution was introduced, its adoption moved and seconded and put to a vote, Aldermen L. C. Proby, J. P. Pressgrove, W. E. Jackson, J. H. Murray voting for its passage, there being no votes against same, and Aldermen E. C. Neely, H. L. Honeycutt being absent and not voting, it was declared duly adopted and ordered entered on the minutes as follows:

A resolution declaring the paving with concrete of that certain alley in the East Ward of the City of Grenada, running from Green Street to Main Street and bounded on the North by lots 99 and 100, and on the South by lots 109 and 110, according to plans and specifications adopted by this Board and on file with the City Recorder, to be necessary and looking to a special assessment against the abutting property for the purpose of paying two-thirds of the cost and expenses of said improvement, etc.

Be it resolved by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Grenada, Miss.

Section 1. That it is deemed, adjudged and hereby declared that it is necessary to pave with concrete that certain alley located in the East Ward of Grenada, Grenada County, Mississippi, running from Green Street to Main Street and bounded on the North by lots 99 and 100 and on the South by lots 109 and 110. Said paving shall be done according to plans and specifications therefor prepared by W. E. Johnson, engineer, and adopted by the Board and now on file in the office of the Recorder of said City.

Section 2. That in the judgment of the said Board of Mayor and Aldermen the general improvement fund of this city should not be used for the purpose of making said special improvements and is also insufficient for said purpose, and said improvements shall be made by special assessments against the property abutting on said alley on its North side and on its South side as follows: one-third of the cost and expenses of making said improvements shall be assessed against the property constituting lots 99 and 100 on the North side of said alley, and one-third of the cost and expenses of said improvements shall be assessed against the property constituting lots 109 and 110 on the South side of said alley, and the remaining one-third of said cost and expenses shall be paid by the City. Assessments against the property abutting on said alley for the payment of the portion of said cost and expenses chargeable against said abutting property shall be assessed upon the following basis and in the following manner, to-wit: By taking the whole number of front feet improved and dividing two-thirds of the total cost of the whole improvement thereby and multiplying the quotient by the number of feet front contained in such abutting lot or piece of ground, the result being assessable by the Board as the amount of the special tax to be assessed against each lot or piece of ground, respectively, as provided by law.

Section 3. That said Board will meet at the Mayor's office in said city on November 4, 1929, at 7:30 p. m. and will, at said meeting, hear and determine any objection or remonstrance that may be made to said improvements, and will also hear and determine any objection or protest against said improvement which may be presented by any person aggrieved or interested, and if a majority of property owners actually residing on property owned by them in said lots 99, 100, 109 and 110 shall protest against said improvements, same will not be made.

Section 4. That this resolution be published in The Grenada Sentinel in its issues of October 18th, October 25th and November 1st, 1929, and that it take effect and be in force from and after passage.

Approved: W. S. P. DOTY, Mayor

Attest: Willye Y. West, Recorder

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Grenada, Mississippi, will receive sealed bids for paving with concrete, according to plans and specifications prepared by W. E. Johnson, engineer, and on file with the City Recorder, of that certain alley in the East Ward of said city, running from Green Street to Main Street and bounded on the North by lots 99 and 100 and on the South by lots 109 and 110, at its regular November 4, 1929, meeting at 7:30 p. m. All bids to be filed with the City Recorder not later than 7:00 p. m. November 4, 1929, and each bidder to furnish certified check or deposit of $500.00 to guarantee good faith. The Board reserves the right to reject all bids.

Witness our signatures this 16th day of October, 1929.

Club Meets With Mrs. Cain.

Mrs. Sam Cain delightfully entertained the book and bridge club, of which she is a member, on Tuesday afternoon.

Cosmos and chrysanthemums were used in decorating, adding to the beauty of her already lovely home.

Mrs. Shade Steele was most successful at the bridge games and received the high score prize, a pretty flower basket of Italian pottery. Low score prize, an attractive owl shaped salt and pepper set, went to Mrs. Ben Graham.

After the games the charming hostess served her guests a delectable salad course and delicious chocolate russe.

Besides the club members those who were privileged to share the afternoon's pleasures were: Mrs. Ben Brown, Mrs. Paul LaGrone, Mrs. Roland Jones and Mrs. J. B. Perry, Jr.

Miss Agnes Trusty spent Monday in Memphis. While there she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Hughes.

Mrs. B. S. Dudley left Wednesday of last week to attend a state meeting of nurses at Laurel Thursday and Friday, Oct. 24 and 25. She stopped to visit for a short while in Newton and returned to Grenada the latter part of the week.

The Methodist Missionary Society will meet Monday afternoon Nov. 4, at three o'clock in the church auditorium for its regular business meeting. Election of officers will be held and all members are urged to be present. The week of prayer will be observed, beginning with the Monday meeting.

Miss Thelma Jackson spent last week-end at "Ole Miss" as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Capps. She returned to Grenada Sunday afternoon with Messrs. Walter Garner and John Lufkin who had driven up that day.

Through error it was announced last week that there would be a program Saturday evening at the college auditorium, concluding the observance of "Charm School Week". The program will be given Saturday evening, Nov. 2.

Mrs. Paul Gerard and Miss Florence Woolard, of Cleveland, spent Thursday of last week in Grenada with Mrs. E. L. Gerard and Mr. Paul Gerard.

Mrs. Bob Counts left Friday for her home in Charlotte, N. C. after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Graham. They drove her as far as Tupelo through the country. Many lovely social attentions were shown Mrs. Counts during her visit.

Mrs. O. B. Hanks, of Yazoo City, and Mrs. M. H. Mabry, of Dublin, came over last Thursday for the fair. While here they were the guests of Mrs. E. T. Sweeney.

Miss Daisy Leigh Roane and her mother, Mrs. Drew Roane, left last Friday morning for Iuka to visit Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roane.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cowan had as their guest from Sunday until Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Marion Carter, of Sads.

Mrs. Joe Higdon, Jr., of Belzoni, spent last week-end in Grenada with her sister, Miss Ida Mae Corley.

Mrs. Jessie Hammaek and two daughters, Clarice and Mary Alice, of Sumner, were guests the first of last week of the Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Henderson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oliver left Tuesday for Memphis. Mr. Oliver returned Wednesday but Mrs. Oliver remained for a longer stay.

Mrs. B. F. Thomas was called to Memphis Wednesday on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. R. B. Maury. The Sentinel joins with Mrs. Thomas' many other friends in sympathizing deeply with her in her bereavement.

Mrs. W. C. Campbell has returned to Grenada after a week's visit in Tunica with her sister, Mrs. Sam Houston.

Mrs. A. W. Stokes, Dr. J. R. Countiss, the Revs. J. H. Holder, E. H. Cunningham, E. G. Mohler, Dr. R. A. Clanton and Messrs. R. W. Sharp, and Kenneth Tucker are attending the North Mississippi conference at Corinth this week. Mr. Tucker is joining the conference this year. Mrs. Cunningham expects to join her husband Sunday.

Mr. Rodney Henderson spent Sunday in Grenada with his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Henderson.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. S. E. Waters, a valued employee of Grenada Auto Co., who lost his father, Mr. R. L. Waters, last week. His father, whose home was in Pope, died after a major operation in a Memphis hospital.

20th Century Club Meets.

The members of the Twentieth Century Club enjoyed a lovely social meeting Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 29, at the home of Mrs. H. J. Ray.

Beautiful red roses and dahlias were artistically arranged in the music room where an especially good program was rendered. Mrs. John Rundle having charge of it. Two very pretty piano solos were given by Misses Ione Henderson and Sylvia Siegel. Miss Ruth G. Bale, head of the expression department at Grenada College, gave a delightful reading, and the Rev. R. L. McLeod, Jr., sang a beautiful solo.

The feature of the program was a splendid address by Mr. D. P. Wilson, of the educational department at Grenada College. He chose as his subject "Teaching Citizenship".

At the conclusion of the program the guests were invited into the dining room where the Halloween motif was successfully carried out in every detail. Bowls and vases of yellow cosmos were placed in both living room and dining room, and witches and goblins also did their part towards creating a truly Halloween aspect.

The table was especially attractive with its centerpiece of exquisite yellow roses and streamers of green tulle extending to sides of the table, the club colors being yellow and green.

Here were seated two gruesome witches who seemed at first to be brewing some sort of poisonous potion, but what later proved to be fragrant coffee and tea. The witches were Mrs. F. A. Stacy and Mrs. E. B. Provine. Delicious yellow and green sandwiches, nuts and mints, also in the chosen colors, were served with the coffee and tea. The yellow sandwiches were cut round and made to resemble the face of a goblin or jack-o-lantern.

Besides Mrs. Ray the other very gracious hostesses were: Mrs. H. B. Spain, Mrs. R. L. Vandiver, Mrs. J. C. Prose, Mrs. Jack Sanderson, Mrs. Jake Siegel, Mrs. H. B. Boosey and Mrs. John Rundle. All wore crepe paper aprons and caps in Halloween colors.

The club motto which has just been selected is "we study to serve".

20th Century Club to Meet

Tuesday with Mrs. York.

Instead of meeting next Tuesday with Mrs. O. F. Lawrence, the 20th Century Club will hold its meeting with Mrs. Frank York on Snider Street, Illinois in Mrs. Lawrence's family prevents her being hostess to the gathering.

Members are asked to make note of the change.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Galceran, of Leland, visited their son, Mr. Albert Galceran, in Grenada Sunday.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. P. Jacob, who are now living in the Rio Grande valley near Raymondville, visited friends in Grenada for a short while the first of the week. They were en route to the North Mississippi conference at Corinth.

Mr. W. E. Spears, of Chickasha, Okla., arrived Monday afternoon to visit his sister, Mrs. George Grant. Mr. J. L. Nickles, of Batesville, came with him and remained until Tuesday. Wednesday Mr. Grant and Mr. Spears went to Belzoni to see Dr. D. A. Mecklin and returned to Grenada Thursday.

Mrs. Earl Workman and son, Edward, of Greenwood, were Grenada visitors Wednesday. Mrs. Workman's mother, Mrs. Toler, was with her.

Mrs. R. L. McLeod, Jr. and Mrs. John Bradley spent Wednesday in Memphis. Mr. Bradley returned to Grenada with them.

Misses Lillian Perry, Louise Hoffa and Cora Lee Wilson and Mrs. W. A. McCool were Greenwood visitors Wednesday.

Mr. R. L. Bradley left Sunday for Jackson after a several weeks' visit with his daughter, Mrs. Henry Pope.

Mrs. Sharp Hostess. Mrs. Donald Sharp was hostess to her bridge club Wednesday afternoon in her home on Snider Street.

A profusion of yellow chrysanthemums formed the decorations throughout the house. Mrs. Roland Jones was winner of high score prize, a deck of playing cards.

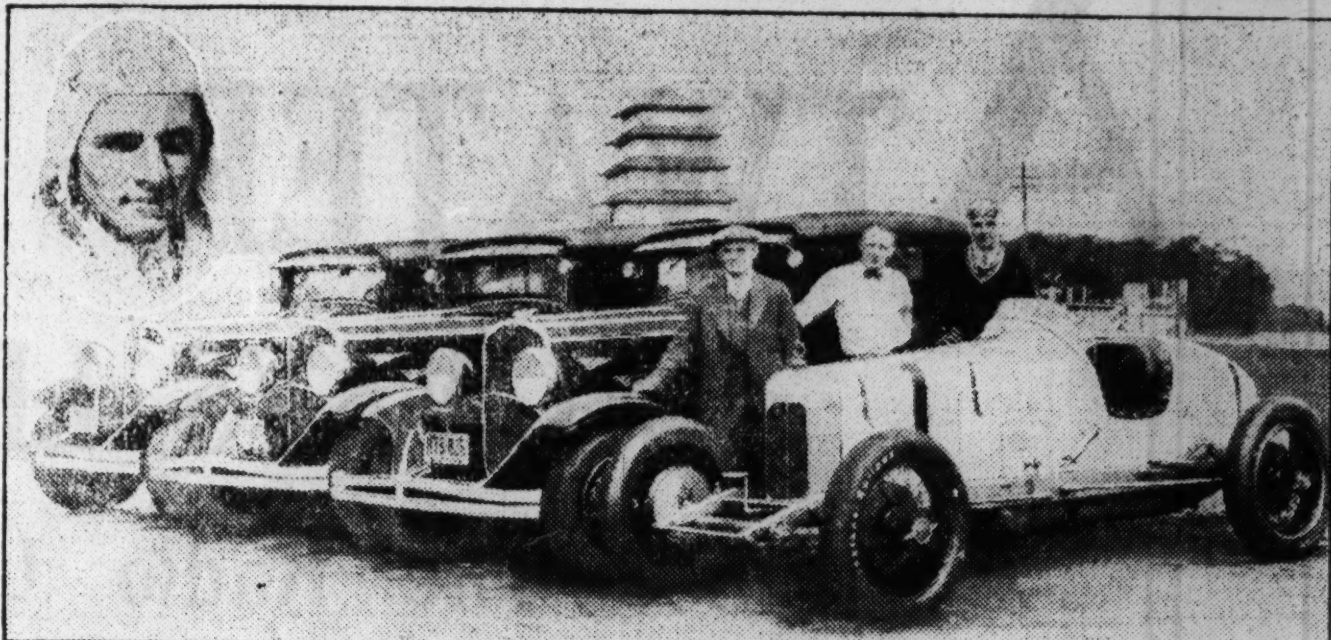

An appetizing salad course was served at the conclusion of the games.

Hart Hood, of St. Louis, who was here last week for homecoming day, his first trip to Grenada in over thirty years, stated that he was more than gratified at Grenada's beauty and that it compared most favorably with other towns of similar size over the country noted for their attractiveness. His compliments on Grenada were many and profuse and Grenadians should feel prouder than ever of the "City Beautiful".

Mrs. Gordon Patten, of Jackson, arrived in Grenada Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. Bruce Newsum. They went to Memphis Monday for a short stay there. Mrs. E. L. Bass and daughter, Martha Vance Smith, went up Tuesday to join them and return with them to Grenada.

Mrs. Carl Nichols returned Saturday to her home in Pace after a visit with Mrs. Paul LaGrone, during which time she was the recipient of numerous social courtesies.

Speed King Buys Five Chrysler "77's"

Before he left Dayton, O., for the winter racing season in California, Louis Meyer, famous "daredevil" of the speedways, bought five new Chrysler "77's". One is for his own use, another is for his father, who has already owned eight Chryslers since they were introduced five years ago. The other three "77's" are for members of Meyer's racing staff. Meyer will be recognized in the inset above and at the right below. His father is on the left. One of Meyer's mechanics is in the center. The picture was taken on the Indianapolis speedway, where Meyer won the 500-mile Memorial Day Classic in 1928.

Mrs. E. A. Penn left last Friday for Nashville where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hager, and her son, Mr. John Lawrence Aiken. She expects to be gone about two weeks.

Mrs. W. R. Todd, Mrs. Mollie Townes, Miss Blanche Winter and Miss Kathryn Todd left Monday morning for Tusculum to visit relatives there. Mrs. R. L. Nisbet accompanied them as far as Pontotoc. Tuesday Mrs. Todd and Miss Todd left for Nashville to visit there. They expect to return to Grenada the latter part of the week, coming back by Tusculum to get Mrs. Townes and Miss Winter.

-have you driven a Chevrolet Six?

Have you felt the thrill of its six-cylinder performance—so smooth, quiet and vibrationless that you almost forget there's a motor?

Have you known the satisfaction of its six-cylinder reserve power—ready to shoot you ahead at the traffic light, to carry you over the steepest hills, or to speed you along the highway?

And do you know that anyone who can afford any car can own a Chevrolet Six?

If you have never driven a six-cylinder car, it is impossible for you to form any idea of Chevrolet performance from your imagination alone.

Smoothness! No rumble in the body—no tremble in the steering wheel—no vibration to loosen windows and doors!

Flexibility! Power that flows in a silken stream—and never a trace of "lugging"!

Quiet! Hardly a whisper from the motor. You can drive it for hours without the slightest noise fatigue! But why try to tell you the story when only a ride can give you the facts? Come in. There's a car waiting for you . . . Now!

Miss Arlene McFarland, who is teaching in Isola, came home last week-end to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McFarland. She was accompanied by Misses Alto Gory, of Eupora, Lillian Yeager, of Skene, and Odell Oaks, of Moorhead, who are all teaching with her in Isola. They drove over through the country with Mr. Lester McFarland who had been visiting his sister since Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. McFarland took them to Greenwood Sunday afternoon through the country.

Mrs. H. L. Honeycutt's friends regret exceedingly that it was necessary for her to return to a Memphis hospital Wednesday. Dr. F. S. Hill, Mr. Honeycutt, and Mrs. Jimmie Shaw went with her. They were accompanied by Mrs. Roy Burt and Mr. Ralph Weir.

Mrs. Gladys Rule and Miss Estelle Rollins had as their guests last week Mrs. Dora Rolins and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sizemore and children, Bobbie and Charles, Jr., of Memphis. They were here from Wednesday until Saturday.

Misses Eugenia and Rose Howard Rowland and Mary Evelyn Garrett, of Oxford, spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Sharp and family.

Gus Gerard Nine.

Gus Gerard celebrated his ninth birthday most enjoyably Monday afternoon with an especially unique and attractive party.

The outdoor camp or lodge on the lawn of the Gerard home had been skillfully transformed into a veritable witches' den. The young guests were ushered with many examinations of horror and delight into a darkened room, lighted only by a weird jack-o-lantern. A huge red demon occupied a conspicuous place in front of the door and in one corner a strange apparition, which seemed to be a large white ghost, stood holding a lighted sparkler and moving its head from side to side in a very "spooky" fashion. Crepe paper streamers in Halloween colors were suspended from the ceiling and all manner of ghosts and goblins peeped out from unexpected corners.

In the center of the room, presenting a pleasant contrast to the unearthly sights, was a very real and beautiful three-tiered white and pink birthday cake, made for Gus by his aunt, Mrs. W. M. Mitchell. There were eight pink candles arranged in a circle and a green one in the center.

During the afternoon lovely gifts were received by the young host and interesting games were played on the lawn, one of the features being a peanut hunt.

Later the cake proved equally as good as it was ornamental especially to the hungry boys who were served big slices with delicious pink and white cream. Fruit and candy were also served.

The guest list included Joe Steele, Clifford Bailey, John Rundle, Bobby Sharp, Duval Proudit, Joe Neely, B. B. Kingham, Barney Echols, William Higginbotham, Overton Pearson, III, Clyde Horn and Albert Cohen. Benjamin Jones and Frank Gerard, Jr., assisted Mrs. Gerard in entertaining Gus' friends. Mrs. John Nason, his godmother and great aunt, and Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Albert George, two other aunts, were also present to share the happy occasion with him. Misses Nectie Pope and Lorraine Lyon, his teacher and music teacher, came in for refreshments.

After his party Gus very thoughtfully went to see and congratulate Dr. J. W. Young, who on the same day was celebrating his eighty-third birthday.

Miss Dora Emma Stevens, who is attending a business college in Jackson, arrived last Friday to spend a week with her mother, Mrs. Joe Stevens. She came especially to see her niece, little Miss Carolyn Estes, who was born October 11.

Carpenner, Elliott; Miss Murphy, Coffeyville; Joe Hargrove, Hollandale; Miss Heloge Crick, Sweetman; Miss Lida Owens, city; Mrs. J. A. Heath, Winona; Mrs. E. A. Horton, city; B. C. Frady, Duck Hill; Lorene Shumate, Duck Hill.

Mrs. J. P. Coleman, of Sunflower, visited her sister, Mrs. Joe Stevens Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Lena Mae Nichols and Dorothy Provine visited Miss Sadie King Provine in Jackson from Saturday until Monday. They drove down through the country with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nichols, who stopped for a visit in Canton on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Wood, of Hattiesburg, were here a part of last week. Mr. Wood coming especially for the homecoming day at the fair. He was born and reared in Grenada County and has a host of friends here who are always delighted to welcome him. Those who got to know his wife while here found her to be a most attractive young woman.

The many friends in Grenada of Mr. and Mrs. Townes Duncan joy with them over the arrival into their home at Phillip last week of another fine baby daughter.

Mrs. Nichols Complimented.

Mrs. Carl Nichols, of Pace, who was the guest last week of Mrs. Paul LaGrone, was charmingly honored on last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. J. H. Boosey and Mrs. Henry Pope entertained for her at the former's home on Main Street.

Pretty blossoms in fall tints were gracefully arranged in the living room where the hostesses received their guests.

Exquisite hand-made handkerchiefs were presented to Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Bob Counts, of Charlotte, N. C., another attractive out-of-town guest.

A delicious salad course was served later.

The following guests made up the two tables of players: Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Counts, Mrs. Paul LaGrone, Mrs. Ben Graham, Mrs. Joe Rumble, Mrs. E. R. Proudit, Mrs. Robert Townes and Mrs. Knox Pierce.

Mrs. W. H. Matthews and son, Charles, and Mrs. Ella Melton, of Greenwood, spent last week-end in Grenada with Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Lickfold and family.

25 YEARS AGO IN GRENADA

From the Files of
THE GRENADA SENTINEL

Among the out-of-town guests in attendance at the Payne-McLemore wedding were: Mrs. F. A. Austin, grandmother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Randolph, uncle and aunt of the bride, from Austin, Texas; Mrs. J. E. Pope, of Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. R. B. Baird and Miss Marion Baird, of Fort Loring, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Austin, Miss Moseley, and Mr. Fred Austin, Jr., of Greenwood.

Mr. Geo. Williamson, of Memphis, was among the out-of-town guests at the Lomax-Dubard nuptials. Several years ago Mr. Williamson was a valued attaché of the Sentinel office, and is most pleasantly remembered in Grenada, where his friends are legion. At present Mr. Williamson is a member of the staff of the Morning News of Memphis.

Chancery court convened last Monday and remained in session until Thursday, Chancellor G. C. Wilson, of Oxford, presiding. No cases of special importance were heard, tho the court's time was well taken up in routine matters and minor cases.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shelby, who have been most pleasant visitors to our city for several months past, left this week for their Delta home at Shelby, Bolivar county, greatly to the regret of their many friends.

Miss Kate Hemingway, a charming young lady of Jackson, was an attractive guest of the family of Dr. J. W. Young several days this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Moore, of Holcomb, were among the departures from this vicinity to St. Louis, during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry and Mrs. B. P. Barwick returned from a trip to the World's Fair Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Simpson and Mrs. H. M. Brown left this week to enjoy the big fair.

Among the prominent social events of the season was the marriage on the 18th, of Miss Fannie McLemore, of Grenada, to Mr. Albert Payne, of Greenwood. Rev. J. C. Carothers, the resident Presbyterian minister, officiated. The following were the attendants: Miss Lena Lacy, of Medina, Tenn. maid of honor; Miss Ella Carnes, of Oxford; Miss Birdie McLemore, Franklin, Tenn.; Miss Mabel Smith, Indianola, Miss Kathryn Hemingway, Jackson, bridesmaids; Mr. Ike Pickins, of Lexington, best man; Messrs. Hines Mathews, of Leland, Calhoun County and Chas. Priestly, of Greenwood, and Thos. Hall of Grenada, ushers; Misses Marion Baird, of Fort Loring, and Ruth Dubard, of Grenada, and Masters Fred Austin, of Greenwood, and Joe Thomas, of Grenada, ribbon bearers. Misses Margaret and Susie McLemore, sisters of the bride, were the flower girls and scattered roses before the bride as she was leaving the altar. Mr. and Mrs. Payne left immediately after the ceremony for Memphis and other points before returning to Greenwood.

Among the guests from a distance who were present at the Lomax-Dubard wedding were: Rev. and Mrs. Lomax and Miss Lomax, Miss Florence Perkins and Mr. Howard Perkins of Batesville; Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Purcell, Mrs. W. W. McNeil, Miss Susie DeLoach, Messrs. Will Petet, L. A. Tyson and R. V. Pollard, of Greenwood; Mrs. Walter Crump, of Parsons; Misses Cliff and Cora Hinds, of Guntown; Mrs. L. M. Brown, of Natchez; Mrs. Gage Dubard, of Courtland; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hanks, of Shaw.

Mrs. W. C. Bryant, of Coffeeville, was in Grenada the first of the week, a guest of her sister, Miss Belle Bailey.

Mr. R. E. Perry, leading merchant and prince of a good fellow, of Williamsburg, was on our streets this week.

Mrs. Weet Barksdale and her two children left on Thursday morning to visit the World's Fair.

Mr. L. Burke, of the firm of Elliott & Burke, of Memphis, was a visitor to Grenada this week.

Mr. Harper Lake, of Little Rock, Ark., is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. B. Barbee.

Mr. A. G. Smith, of Nashville, Tenn., was a visitor to Grenada Thursday.

Mr. John Gibson, of Vicksburg, was among the out-of-town visitors to Grenada this week.

Hon. C. L. Lomax, of Greenwood, was a distinguished visitor to our city this week.

Mrs. S. D. G. Scruggs and Miss Maude Tindall left on Monday for St. Louis.

Mr. South B. Williams, a young attorney, and nephew of the editor, is here with the intent of locating in Grenada to pursue his profession. Mr. Williams is now in the office with Col. B. C. Adams, and is a graduate of the University of Tennessee as well as a member of the bar of that state.

Misses Elizabeth and Ethel Moore are visiting the great World's Fair.

"WATCH YOURSELF GO BY"

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by:

Think of yourself as "he" instead of "I."

Watch closely, as in other men you note

The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat;

Pick flaws, find fault, forget the man is you.

And strive to make your estimate ring true.

Confront yourself, and look you in the eye—

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as though

You looked on one whose aims through you when

You see you shirk, you commendest of men.

Despise your cowardice, condemn what'er

You note of baseness in you anywhere.

Defend not one defect that shames your eye—

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

And then—with eyes unveiled to what you loathe,

To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe—

Back to your self-walled tenement you'll go

With tolerance for all who dwell below.

The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink.

Love's chain grows stronger by one mighty link.

When you, with "he" as substitute for "I,"

Have stood aside and watched yourself go by.

Over a Billion Deadly Germs in a Single Drop of Water

Germs are so small that there may be as many as one billion, seven hundred million of them in a drop of water. And just a few of these tiny germs, if they get into your blood through a cut in your skin, may make you so sick you will be in bed for weeks—may cause the loss of a limb through blood poisoning—may even infect you with that most dreadful and fatal of diseases, lockjaw.

Just because you can see no dirt in a cut does not mean that it is clean. You cannot see germs. The only safe and sane thing to do, is to thoroughly wash every cut, no matter how small, with Liquid Borosone, to kill the germs, and then dust it with Borosone Powder, to hasten the healing. Liquid Borosone costs 30 cents, 60 cents, $1.20 and $1.50; Borosone Powder, 30 cents and 60 cents, and can be had at CORNER DRUG STORE.

Going Forward

Progress is tangible evidence of business success. Judged by this standard, the railroads are unsurpassed among the nation's industries. They have made an outstanding record of progress.

Their progress is demonstrated in many ways. One is the constant improvement of service. Month after month this year has seen new records established by the railroads. Shippers and travelers are enjoying service better far than ever before. Yet the railroads keep diligently striving to do even better.

At the same time they are enlarging the scope of their activities. The possibilities of highway and air service are being explored. Seventy-odd railroads operate buses. Something like forty operate trucks. Several have co-ordinated air and rail passenger service. The Railway Express Agency, owned by the railroads, offers air express service. Some railroads operate steamships.

In the field of community service, too, the railroads are going forward. They support civic improvements. They provide substantial share of community school funds. The economic resources of their territories are made widely known. They employ specialists who devote their services to the promotion of agricultural and industrial development. These are merely examples.

This progressiveness is a guaranty to the public that with its continued support and co-operation the railroads can be relied upon to do their vital part in insuring the country's progress.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

To Whom it May Concern:

I am glad to hereby render testimony as to curative value of Robinson Spring Water.

Nineteen years ago my mother was afflicted with a long standing case of Diabetes. She was then about fifty six years old, had lost about thirty pounds in weight and had spent many sleepless nights. After drinking a gallon of Robinson Spring Water every day for six months she regained her health and has remained cured. She is now seventy-five years old, lively and healthy.

I am, very Respectfully

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Obeying the Law.
YOUNG PEOPLE'S AND ADULT TOPIC—Making Effective the Will of the Community.

(World's Temperance Sunday.)
Though our citizenship is in heaven, we have obligation to the government under which we live.

I. Obligation to Pay Tribute (Mark 12:13-17).
This teaching concerning the tribute money came in answer to the question put to Jesus by representatives of the Pharisees and Herod. They would gladly have killed Him, but they feared the people. Their only hope therefore was to discredit Him among the people.

1. Their question (v. 14).
Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? The Pharisees contended that since God was the real king of Israel, it was not obligatory—yea, even sinful—to pay taxes to a heathen king. The Herodians were supporters of Herod. With flattery on their lips, they put this subtle question. For Christ to have answered "yes" would have discredited Him with the people, and to have said "no" would have made Him liable to arrest by the Roman authority as an enemy of the government.

2. Jesus' reply (vv. 15-17).
He requested a coin to be brought and inquired as to whose image and superscription it bore, declaring that those who accept the coin of Caesar should pay taxes to Caesar. Thus the Lord escaped their trap and inculcates a principle which applies to all time and conditions as to the Christian's responsibility to civil government.

II. The Christian's Obligation to the State (Rom. 13:1-7).

The believer is a citizen as well as a Christian.

1. Obedience to rulers (vv. 1-4).
This obligation is upon all Christians. Civil government is ordained of God, and rulers are His representatives. To refuse obedience to civil authority is to resist God. This does not mean that a Christian at the behest of the state should do that which is inherently wrong. The same is true of the child in its responsibility to its parents. While obedience to parents is the will of God for children, this does not imply that the child is under obligation to do that which is morally wrong, at the command of the parent. Submission to rightfully constituted authority is the law of the believer's life.

2. The spirit in which the Christian renders obedience to rulers (v. 5).
He should regard it as his obligation not merely because it serves a good purpose, but because it is morally right.

3. Methods of expressing this obedience (vv. 6, 7).

(1) In the payment of personal and property taxes. The citizen who enjoys the benefits of government is morally bound to support it.

(2) Payment of duty upon merchandise, and license fees. The business exchange between nations must be regulated. For such regulations, expense is incurred, for which benefit the citizen should pay.

(3) Veneration for magistrates—"Fear to whom fear."

Those who have the fear of God in their hearts will venerate their rulers, God's representatives.

(4) "Honor to whom honor." Civil officers should be honored because of the ministry they perform.

III. The Spirit of Loyalty to Authority (1 Pet. 2:13-17).

The loyalty of the Christian to right authority should be glad and free. The Christian recognizes the necessity of social order, and will graciously submit to the authority of rulers and faithfully perform his obligation as a citizen, not through cringing fear, but as the Lord's free man, for the Lord's sake. By means of this free submission as God's servant, he puts to silence the ignorance of foolish men (vv. 15, 16).

1. Honor all men (v. 17).

He will see in every man the image of God and therefore give honor to Him. A Christian will attend to the proprieties of life among all classes and in all relations.

(2) Love the brotherhood (v. 17). The Christian has a peculiar love for those who are of the same household.

(3) Fear God (v. 17). This is filial, reverential fear.

(4) Honor the king (v. 17). This has a peculiar significance, for in all probability the wicked Nero was then the reigning monarch.

Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive system are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs, and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at

Why not Pay the Tax for the ESTATE instead of from it?

Federal estate taxes and state inheritance taxes touch a great many more people than might be imagined. And when they touch—they touch deeply! President Coolidge's remarks are pertinent: "There are circumstances where the taxes may exceed the value of the property left by the decedents."

Too often a goodly portion of an estate has to be sacrificed to meet Inheritance Taxes—for such claims must be met promptly, and in cash. The logical solution is an "Inheritance Tax Policy," which saves not only money but time and worry as well.

DODGE BRAKES STOP 5-TON ELEPHANT

Four-wheel hydraulic brakes on Dodge Brothers cars are more than one elephant-power as shown when Jumbo matches his five tons against this braking force. The car stands like Gibraltar because a force of 500 pounds per square inch can be exercised at each brake from a pressure of only 120 pounds at the brake pedal. The positive easy action of hydraulic brakes is assured by fundamental laws. Jumbo is finding an easier job lifting the car for a tire change as shown below, although of course a jack is handier to carry around than an elephant.

An Unpleasant Subject

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. the English in 1762, but as early as 1672 it was a French colony known as Fort Catarague. Many battles have been fought here. Now on the American side we have Rochester, N. Y., called the Flower City because of its many nurseries. It is also headquarters for the Eastman Film Company and the substantial donations of Mr. Eastman of Kodak fame, has helped to build the great university of Rochester.

We now pass Sommerville, N. Y. The band is playing, the merry-go-round and ferris wheel are seen. It's just a typical summer park and just across the way is Charlotte, N. Y. We will be on Lake Ontario all night and will be sung to sleep with the song of the billows. Lake Ontario is the smallest of the five great lakes and is 190 miles long and about 60 miles at its greatest width. We are awakened at 7 a. m. go ashore and find we are at Toronto, Canada, the Queen City of Ontario Province, once a village used by trappers, now a clean, prosperous, rather American-looking city; it's the capital of Ontario and the second largest city in the Dominion of Canada.

The view from the lake is lovely and it is hard to believe that this great city has developed in so short a time. We view the business and residential part of the city, admire the Attorney General's home, marvel at so many beautiful trees and flowers and we say goodbye to Toronto, carrying away with us a bouquet of golden memories.

Now we are going to London, Ontario, to see for the first time the college where my father was educated. The wonderful building I found still standing on its imposing site of many acres, a beautiful campus with century old trees. It is now used as St. Joseph's Orphanage, and I was so happy to view the building and grounds. Sister St. Michael allowed us to go all through the building which is kept up in excellent manner. There were some ten or fifteen, 2 and 3 year old babies in the nursery, bright eyed, rosy checked, and seemingly happy as could be and no doubt better off, in some instances, than they would have been with their own parents.

London is a beautiful city of about 75,000 population. We are leaving here bound for Niagara Falls, Canada, about a five hour ride. We arrive and taxi up to the Clifton Hotel where we are given a room that has a wonderful view of the falls. We go out for dinner and view thousands of people on the boulevards and in the parks that border the falls. Every chair on the spacious veranda circling the Clifton Hotel seemed filled. After our dinner, we walk out on the rim of Niagara River some fifty feet from the hotel, and gaze in amazement at this powerful body of water called Niagara Falls. It is all lighted with beautiful colored lights (a recent attraction). It is enchanting and inspiring in its grandeur. We will take an electric observation car through the gorge and over to the American side tomorrow.

We now go to our room and soon fall asleep listening to the music of the great Falls. It's now early morning. We get a cafeteria breakfast, secure tickets for the Niagara Great Gorge trip, go aboard and as our trolley trolleys along the complete story of Niagara is unfolded to us. At Falls View Bridge we get a thrill. We see unusual scenery. The aero car over the whirlpool, there is a bridge of wire ropes 1240 feet long standing up about 192 feet high at the Canadian side of Niagara River and those wishing to go over to the American side get into this little car, which is taken high up into the air, and is slowly carried across on these wire ropes to the other side. One views this sight in astonishment. We watched several of these cars with five or six "nervy" passengers, sliding across the great whirlpool waters nearly 200 feet up in the air, and they usually breathed a sigh of relief when they landed safely at the other end. Our trolley with perhaps 50 people, speeds along through the gorge, seeing Brock's monument 185 ft. high. Our descent from the heights discloses grandeur indescribable - each curve in the channel unfolds new glories. Geologists claim that it took about 40,000 years for the Falls to cut its course. Wooded hills sweep gently to the side of the river and the tall cliffs are bathed by crashing rapids.

Now we reach the Whirlpool Rapids, truly an entrancing spectacle never to be forgotten. Everyone seems spellbound with admiration. Truly this is one of the greatest wonders of the world. After seeing all there is here, we will run down to Chicago. That city you both know all about, but it will no doubt have some interesting changes that I can tell you of since the time of your post-graduation days there. This is about all we can tell you of eastern Canada. We will write you next week of our western Canadian trip.

given him an opportunity to radiate those influences and qualities that most naturally emanate from such a life, and possessing that instinctive ability of regarding nothing alien to himself that was human he has been able to touch and influence every phase of human activity with which he came in contact. As a professional man he possessed those unique qualities of resourcefulness that could cope with the many difficult problems that confronted the old time doctor. If the occasion demanded he could do a podalic version by the light of a pine knot torch with the mother-in-law holding the legs and the grandmother administering the chloroform, he could set a fractured leg with a twine string and a flat iron with as good function as the city specialist and at one-tenth the cost. On the other hand while he has been able to cope with these difficulties he has not been unmindful of nor has he failed to take advantage of the improved technical and research advancement of modern medicine. He has kept pace with the onward trend of his honored profession. In recognition of his ability and leadership upon several occasions he has been signally honored by the members of his profession, prominent among which he has been president of the State Medical Association, was delegate at large to the American Medical Association and held the position of County Health Officer for a period of thirty years.

As I have before stated Dr. Young has not been a one talent man. In the affairs of church and state his leadership has been as conspicuous as in his professional sphere. No person within my knowledge has contributed more largely than Dr. Young in moulding thought and sentiment in those reforms that pertain to the uplift and betterment of his fellowman, and I can imagine no more consoling or gratifying thought, when the shadows of evening are falling, as he looks back through the dim vista of four score years with the satisfaction of a life usefully spent, of duty well done and the knowledge of a legacy rich in lofty ideals and noble examples. Dr. Young, we are glad to honor you tonight and I am sure that I voice the sentiment of those present in wishing you many happy anniversaries yet to come.

At the close of a glowing tribute to the honor guest, Dr. Gillespie, the speaker, presented him with a handsome meerschaum pipe with many felicitations upon his anniversary. Dr. Brown, Dr. Avent, Dr. Whitaker, Dr. Caruthers and Rev. Mr. McLeod were others who spoke of the honorable career of the aged physician, all of them expressing the wish that they, too, could look forward to such respect and honor when they attained that age. To all that was said Dr. Young responded with great feeling and emotion. The Sharp home was decorated in Confederate flags for the occasion and gorgeous chrysanthemums and other flowers lent a note of color. The huge birthday cake, with the Confederate Stars and Bars frosted in the icing, and surmounted by 83 brilliantly burning candles, was indeed beautiful. Assisting the hostess, Mrs. Sharp, in serving her guests were Mrs. B. S. Dudley and Miss Lynn Dunavant.

Dr. Young was born in Carroll county, near the present city of Winona, At 16 years of age he enlisted in the southern army under General Forrest, serving in that command throughout the conflict. Honors that have come to him outside his profession are many among which is that three times he has represented his state as delegate at Democratic National conventions. He has been a citizen of Grenada since 1889 and still maintains an active interest in public affairs.

Last week the first test for the session was given at the Grenada Colored School. The result showed that the students are down to real work. The honor roll students are as follows:

Senior Class, John Hall; Junior Class, Walker Matthews; Eighth grade, La Fontaine Shackelford; Seventh grade, Aaron Frazier; Sixth grade, Ida M. Sigers; Fifth grade, John H. Cain; Fourth grade, Mildred Williams; Third grade, Minnie L. Bedwell, Second grade, Jessie P. Brown; Primary department, A. Georgia Goodman, Louise Mozee; Primary department B, Eva Wilmington, Josephine Walker. Educational week will be observed at the high school beginning Nov. 11th. The following subjects will be discussed: Nov. 11th, "Armistice Day" by Rev. G. M. Chisholm. Nov. 12th, "Home And School Day" by Rev. M. R. Mozee. Nov. 13th, "Know Your School" by Rev. W. M. Barnes. Nov. 14th, "School Opportunity Day" by Rev. A. Nabors. Nov. 15th, "Health Day" by Dr. O'Neal.

The funeral of B. C. White, an old citizen of this community, took place at Vincent M. E. church last Saturday at 11 a. m. He had been ill for some time and had gone to a New Orleans hospital for relief which did not avail, and there died. He was brought to Grenada last Friday. B. C. White was well known in Grenada, having been born and reared here. For years he served at the Grenada Hotel and later was a porter on the I. C. R. R., his run being between Canton, Miss. and Jackson, Tenn. He was a faithful member of Vincent M. E. church and lived a Christian life. He was thrice married. His first two wives preceded him to the grave. He leaves a widow and one daughter by a previous marriage, a brother, three sisters, other relatives and many friends to mourn his departure.

Miss C. Alphaline Hudson, daughter of Mr. Hiram Hudson, on Clay Street, a graduate of Rust College, left Sunday for a high school in South Mississippi to take charge of a class in the intermediate department. She is also the music director.

Mrs. E. J. W. Rogers, assistant principal of our city school, gave our Sunday School a treat by having her junior quartette (small boys of the fourth grade) to entertain by singing spirituals to the satisfaction of all who heard them. Mrs. Rogers is an adept at getting out new ideas that both entertain and elevate.

Eddie Ward of this city made a flying trip to Memphis to visit Sherman Phillips, his chum. He surprised Sherman although he had been previously notified that he was coming. He didn't think Ed could save enough to pay railroad fare, but he did and enjoyed it, too, if it did leave him strapped.

It was our pleasure to be present at an affair at the home of Mr. Thomas Whitten given in honor of his friend, Mr. Frank Ellis, of the Tie Plant community who had just been united in wedlock to Mrs. Mary Williams of the same community, the ceremony having been performed by Rev. B. M. Moss, pastor of Second New Hope M. B. Church. The contracting couple with several friends came over to Mr. Whitten's where they were met by quite a number of invited guests where all partook of a well prepared repast, which at that hour was welcomed by all who were present. Mr. and Mrs. Whitten know how to entertain. The general surrounding of this home was a guarantee that everything would be presented on a high class order. Flowers in profusion all over the yard and music under the roof gave a thrill to those who had been invited.

Rev. B. M. Moss, pastor of Second New Hope Baptist church, preached a soul stirring sermon to a crowded audience last Sunday. A contribution of $24.40 was laid on the table as a result of his effort. The evening devotion service was conducted by G. W. Ford. Rev. C. H. Gallion was introduced and preached a splendid sermon. An offering at this service netted $6.40 which made the total for the day $30.80. During the week the sisters of the church stormed the pastor with groceries and good things to eat for which he was
